

After the dedication of the new building for the army reserve at Middletown, Conn.
 the speaker said that the building was a
 fine example of the architecture of the state and that it was a credit to the city of Middletown.
 He then spoke of the importance of the army reserve and the need for more
 buildings like this one.
 He closed his speech
 with a prayer for the success of the army reserve and the city of Middletown.

Middleton Army Reserve Dedication Speech by Lemuel Ellsworth Stoughton dated May 15, 1982. (2019.000.0077)

Oil Refinery with Christmas Lights (326)

Lobster Pots (327)